CAMPAIGN OPENS.

Banner Flung to the Breeze and Big
Crest Erected to Time Y. M. C. A.
Contributions.

Tuesday morning the banner announcing the Y. M. C. A. campaign for the purpose of raising $30,000 or more for a new building was flung to the breezes, being strung across Main street between the Loomer building and the large pole in front of J. F. Carr's store. The inscription on the banner is "Y. M. C. A. building. Campaign headquarters. Board of Trade rooms. Watch the clock."
A large clock—12 feet in diameter—was erected in front of the Lincoln building in Postoffice square, and the hands indicated that the sum of $12,500 had already been pledged, some of it conditional on the raising of the entire amount. The clock sign is illuminated by night and proclaims the exact amount to all who chances to glance toward the famous clock.
The first real work of the campaign proper was done Tuesday afternoon, when the result of the first 24 hours of labor will be announced at today's noon lunch. Much enthusiasm is being exhibited, and the men appear to be heart and soul in the campaign, and the ladies approached for subscriptions have responded magnificently and are apparently taking as much active interest as the men.

Tuesday at 12.15 the various company captains, the team leaders and their respective companies and teams met in the banquet hall of the board of trade and partook of lunch that was served free to the workers, and will continue to be served until the close of the campaign. Arthur W. Sweet, the chief in charge, is ably assisted by active workers.
The project was explained in detail by Campaign Secretary W. A. Bowen and the company commanders and the team leaders then got busy and made the assignments to their squads, going over lists of prospective subscribers and making other assignments.
No more gifts will be announced until the noon lunch today, when a full report for the first 24 hours' work will be made and outlined. It is hoped that every man of the 132 in the different companies and on the various teams will be present at all of the noon lunches from now on and get right into the spirit of the work, as the proposition means so much to the city of Willimantic, particularly to the youth of the community.

WILL GROW CUBAN TOBACCO.

Clark Bros. to Put Fifty Acres Under Shade Next Spring.

Clark Bros. of Poquonnick who are known throughout the state as experts in the culture of tobacco, are going to make a new venture in tobacco raising next year.

They are convinced that the best programme for the large grower to follow is to raise the Cuban variety under shade, this variety being now in great demand by the New York trade. They propose to grow fifty acres of the Cuban variety under shade next spring. This proposition will involve extraordinary expenditures, but they are amply supplied with capital and are associated with financiers whose faith in the new experiment is unbounded.

Japanese Red.
Japanese red is a reigning color in vogue in London, and a touch of it is used in almost all articles of women's dress.

It is a dull shade of red, and is more effective when used in trimming than in a whole garment. Coat of it and a few gowns have been seen, but for the most part it has made its appearance on black hats, as piping for dresses, or in some of the Oriental embroideries on evening gowns.

Fur mitts and stoles are often lined with it, and some of the more piped with the new color or have bands of it inset. For London the Japanese red is distinctly appropriate in the dull days of winter, as it gives a rich spot of color in the midst of the gray atmosphere.

Rest Harrow in Real Life.
The romance of the young Norwalk couple who eloped and lived in a Catskill cave has been rudely interrupted. The police have taken them in charge on a request from the girl's parents. So difficult is it in a Puritanic state of civilization to realize ideals of happiness that conflict with the marriage law.

Here were two young people who were conscientiously attempting to apply the social philosophy of one of the greatest living novelists. Here was a Seahouse and a Sanchez in real life. How much the youth know of the Greek mythology and what particular goddess is reincarnate in the girl is immaterial, as is also the fact that because of climate conditions they were obliged eventually to take refuge in the railroad station for warmth. In all its essentials the parallel holds true. For six weeks the lovers made the cave their home. They eked out their scant fare with the small game they shot and the fish they caught and no doubt botanized and discoursed on the higher law of happiness and the barbarity of social conventions.

Why Church Pews Are Empty.
A well known clergyman, the Rev. W. T. Luntz, contributes an illuminating article to Suburban Life for December, in which he ridicules some of the reasons often advanced for staying away from church on Sunday. He says: "Thousands who once attended the suburban church now cover themselves with dirt and grease and vermin of spirit. In a long, wild rush through scenery they do not see, and, irrevocably call it worshipping God. The working man who is so tired when night comes he can hardly stand, must play ball on Sunday; the clerk, who has been on his feet all the week, and grown weary, must teach his white and delicate fingers to twirl the golf club on the Lord's day, and get the kink out of his legs and the cobwebs out of his brain; the rich man, who has more afternoons and evenings than he knows what to do with during the week, must deaden his ear on Sunday by a couple hundred miles 'spin in his automobile. These are some of the reasons for the decline in Sunday worship in suburban churches."

And a Check Rein.
When a woman wears a hat which comes down over her face so far that she can't see and a skirt which is so tight around her ankles that she can't walk, one wonders why she neglects to have herself handcuuffed.—Chicago Record-Herald.

Or a Full Feeling.
The fall is the price of necessities is not so fast and rapid as to give the consumer a dizzy feeling in the head.—Jackson Clarion-Ledger.
